THE SHULTION AND SPECULATIONS—CHANCES FOR AN EARLY ADJOURNMENT OF CON-GRESS-FAILURG OF THE HOUSE TO PASS THE MEMY BILL OVER THE PRESIDENT'S VETO-THE SILVER BILL -PERSONAL, &C.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.] WASHINGTON, May 1 .- Before Congress met to-day there were lively debates among smaleur statesmen in regard to the situation, and the speculations were about as reasonable as one heard when interviewing congressmen on the same subject. The stalwart Democrats and those sympathizing with them made the most noise, and it was clear that if a vote were now taken on the question, "Shall the Democratic party stand of the Government?" that it would receive a two-thirds if not a four-fifths vote of Democratic congressmen, and an almost unanimous vote of Democratic outsiders. But there are wise Democratic congressmen who shake their heads and wait for the excitement to subside. Among these I could cummerate representatives and sensiors whose wisdom and patriotism are recognized all over the country, and a conference with these makes me believe that whatever may be done Congresse will never go home permanently without passing appropriation bills. The Republicans would rejoice if they would, and with reason. As a case in point, the correspondent of one of the large Republican journals of the West, in a conference with a Republican leader to-day, expressed views similar to those given above, when the honorable, with great frankness, said, "I hope not." .. What," said the correspondent, "you do not want them to do what will allay exetement and help the business of the country?" "No," remarked the congressman. "certainly not from a Republican standpoint, because I want the Democratic party the country." SAGACIOUS MEMBERS IN MUCH DOUBT. This afternoon I interviewed a member of the House of recognized sagacity in re- expects to be the Republican candidate for gard to the situation, and he had to confess | the presidency. that he did not know what to think, and he was evidently not in his usual good spirits. He confessed that he had heard so many members say they would never yield that he was unable to say whether there would be any adjournment of the extra session. lie thought, however, that if there was an passage of some sort of appropriation bills. There are others just as much at sea as he is. The statement that Senator Butler, of Senate cancus that because of its mild tone astonished northern senators, causes much comment, for it has not long been the habit of South Carolina members to lead in conservatism. Another rumor is that the resolation was very violent.

THE HOUSE PAILS TO PASS THE ARMY BILL OVER THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

At I o'clock to-day Mr. Sparks called the previous question on the proposition to pass the army bill in spite of the veto of the President, but Mr. Conger wanted to know that it would discuss it. There were cries of "Regular order" on the Democratic side. was a storm of objections on the Republican side, which made the temper of the member from Tennessee unusually sour. In fact. he couldn't. The Republicans laughed, but afterwards Conger withdrew the objection, and a general consent to print was given. The Speaker ordered the roll to be called, as the Constitution directs, and the proceeding was unusually tedious. It was finally ascertained that one hundred and twenty members wanted the bill to pass in and ten stood by him. THE SILVER BILL THE ORDER FOR SATURDAY. The House to-day, by a vote of 115 to 107, agreed on Saturday to consider General Warner's silver bill, reported from the Committee on Coinage, and the indications are that it will pass. Of course all of the Greenbackers and the bulk of the Demotrats are for it, and all of the Republicans Mr. Beck says it will go through the Senate, and Mr. Hayes will have an opportunity for a financial veto. The bill provides for equality.

I AM BULLDOZED AND INTIMIDATED-PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL.

As industriously as Colonel W. P. Burwell is working to get the bill for the relie? of exporters of tobacco passed, he finds time for politics, and I am afraid I will have to call on Judge Christian for protection, for he bulldozes and intimidates me daily just because I will not agree that the Democrats are going home without passing any appropriation bills unless Mr. Hayes backs down from his veto-message. It is as much as a member's life is worth to say in his tary; but the point was overruled by presence that he intends to do anything short of dying in the last ditch on the army bill. But when Mr. Richmond remarked to him last night that, if solitary and alone, he meant to fight it out on the line on which he had started if it took all the summer, his face lighted up radiantly, and he was lavish with his compliments.

WASHINGTON, May 1 .- The two committees appointed by the House and Senate Democratic caucuses to report what action should be adopted in view of the presidential vetoes, past and prospective, held a joint meeting this afternoon. In consequence of the absence of several members of the committees their places were filled by other appointments. Mr. Tucker's place being filled by Mr. Goode, of Virginia. After a very full interchange of views all present agreed upon a proposition concerning the army bill, to be reported to the separate caucuses of the two bouses to morlow afternoon, which, it is expected will be adopted by both, thus rendering a joint caucus on this subject unnecessary.

It was decided that the terms of this proposition should not be made public in advance of their submission to the caucuses. if the fact that the House yesterday agreed but there are sufficient grounds for stating to consider the bill to-day did not imply that it will recommend the repassage of the army appropriation bill, with the 6th section changed so as to apply only to officers of the army and navy, and not to United Mr. Atkins asked unanimous consent to States civil officers, thus obviating the prinprint some remarks on the message, but there | cipal objection raised by the President against its approval.

The Russian Reign of Terror. UNIVERSAL FEELING OF GLOOM IN ST. PE-TERSBURG-THE INSECURITY DAILY IN-CREASING-THE NIHILISTS BECOMING AG-GRESSIVE-TROOPS KEPT CONSTANTLY UN-DER ARMS, &C.

COLOGNE, May 1 .- The Cologne Gazette's St. Petersburg letter, dated April 22d. says: · A universal feeling of gloom prevails. One feels he must be prepared for the worst. The rigorous police regulations already in force respecting the watching of the entrance of house-visits and searches by night and so on are to be rendered still more stringent. After 9 o'clock in the evening nobody will be at liberty to show himself in the street without a certificate, upon which must be written and attested the place from which the bearer comes and to which he is going. If this ordinance, which was planned by General Gourko, the Governor-General, is promulgated, then we shall have nothing to do but quietly squat down in our chambers in the evening, for how are we going to get such certificate and attestation after that hour? Soon it will be necessary to light a candle before half-past 9 o'clock, and yet at 9 o'clock, just as in the barracks, every light must be put out. The measures are certainly stringent, but at the same time the insecurity at St. Petersburg is daily on the increase. Every day we hear of grenades exploded in the streets. Happily there have not been serious consequences. For the present the intention of the hotels, restaurants, and beer-gardens closed Nihilists is believed to be to keep the police in a state of constant excitement, and at last tire them out or lull them to sleep with the idea that the danger has been exaggerated. They also reckon on the harsh measures and arrests producing discontent among many people, who, when the time comes for a grand attack on the Government, would join the revolutionists.
